

Pamela Dela Cruz Scholarship

SFSU College of Business for academic year fall 2010 - spring 2011

Deadline to Apply: April 30, 2010

Purpose of the Scholarship:

The purpose of the Pamela Dela Cruz Scholarship is to award $2,500 for the fall 2010/spring 2011 academic year ($1250 in each of fall and spring semesters) to a working/employed undergraduate SFSU College of Business student, who is entering the senior class level, with financial need, and enrolled at least half time with a minimum GPA of 2.75. This scholarship is made possible by a generous gift from Pamela Dela Cruz, an alumna of the College of Business at San Francisco State University. Pamela Dela Cruz is an independent real estate broker and owner of Pamela Dela Cruz & Associates, servicing the San Francisco Bay Area.

A potential candidate for this scholarship must meet the following qualifications:

- Students need to provide documentation that they're working/employed (i.e. a letter from employer verifying employment)
- Senior class level during the fall 2010 / spring 2011 semesters
- Enrolled at least half time
- Minimum GPA of 2.75
- Major in Business Administration

Amount of award:

$2,500 per academic year: $1250 in each of fall 2010 and spring 2011 semesters
